OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 18 April 1967

25X1 1. [] JSW) Mr. Paul Nelson, Staff Director of House Banking and Currency Committee, called indicating there had been 25X1 some interest in the Committee in having the Agency participate in a panel discussion of the [] However, Mr. Patman wanted the Agency to know, and had requested Nelson to call me, that he, Patman, did not feel it was necessary or desirable for the Agency to participate and thought this would be the end of the matter.

25X1 2. [] JSW) Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to say that the 15 April issue of the WASHINGTON OBSERVER had an item in it stating that Senate Internal Security Subcommittee has information that Carl Rowan, the columnist, is a mouthpiece for CIA to the tune of $50,000 a year. Mr. Sourwine wanted us to know that they know nothing about this matter.

25X1 3. [] JSW) Mr. Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, called to check the possibility of a meeting with the CIA Subcommittee on Tuesday morning, 25 April, at 9:00 a.m. He specified that this would not be on budget, but would include whatever informational topics the Agency thought appropriate. After checking with the Director's office, this time was confirmed to Mr. Michaels.

25X1 4. [] GLC) Jay Sourwine, called concerning reports about two Soviets presently in the United States. Sourwine identified these individuals as [] STAT
He said, according to information provided him, a Soviet defector had tipped off U.S. authorities to their identities as KGB agents. Sourwine said that one of his senators was curious about this report. Sourwine has queried State about this but said the Soviet Desk at State had no information as to whether or not one of these individuals was "the number two man in the KGB" as reported.
Sourwine was astonished at this reply. He asked if I would check on the names of these individuals and the proper pronunciation.
